Thank you!

The Friends of the Library . . .

Give assistance to and promote the Tyler Public Library.

A department of the City of Tyler since 1904, the Tyler Public Library had its origins in 1899 as a subscription library begun on the downtown square by the Tyler Federation of Women.

The purpose of the Friends is to continue that early spirit of community support!

The Friends of the Tyler Public Library
act as ambassadors in the community for Library services and support the Library's important roles by:

- ♥ Providing materials to instill a love for reading in children and for lifetime education and leisure for out-of-school adults.
- ♥ Creating a haven for the life of the mind through programs and presentations.
- ♥ Bridging the digital divide for all the community.

Plenty of ways to help your library

- ♥ The Friends provide the many "extras" that help to make a good library better.
- ♥ Author visits and special speakers.
- ♥ Programs to motivate reading
by Tyler children.
- ♥ Library furnishings and special equipment.
- ♥ Prizes and gifts.
- ♥ Sponsorship of copy machines
and snack vending machines.

Library Friends receive

- ♥ Enhanced opportunities to participate in planning the library's future and making it happen.
- ♥ Tax-deduction for the amount of your contribution. (Contemporaneous substantiation for IRS available for gifts of $250 or more.)
- ♥ Knowledge that you are a part of the community spirit that began the Tyler Public Library!
